THE KING OF ARDEN

John Celebrates His First Win

John King celebrated his first win in a Ex el Angling club match by taking the honours on a very disappointing Oaks Lake at Arden Fishery. John drew peg 34 on the far side of the lake and put together 15-14 which included a number of Barbel.

Dave Crosby collected the runners-up spot with some late action from peg 24. Dave managed to tempt a couple on the feeder before finishing off his day with a decent Carp from the margins on the pole.

Dave Robinson put his back problems to one side to finish in third spot putting 8-15 on the scales. Dave had a mixed bag of Silvers and Carp but you can see by the weight he had to work hard to collect the frame finish.

Making his first appearance of the season Mark Jones just sneaked the fourth place by five ounces. Mark had to wait along time for his first fish which came from close to the island, But like the buses once one came along it was followed quickly by another. Kieran Smith just missed out on the top Four ending with 5-14 from peg 30, and it was nice to see Steve Kavanagh again fishing as a guest who finished in sixth with 5-2.

THANKS FOR THE HELP

I was grateful for those who volunteered to help in the absence of John Male (I hoped the grandson won the cup final). Rob Cox who helped in collecting the money, Darren Bullock and Ian Hughes for doing the weigh in and not forgetting Paul Hotchkiss for pegging out.

CONGRATULATIONS ANDY

Congratulations to new member this season Andy Taylor who became a proud father last Friday. Can someone please supply Andy with an Alarm clock I think he is going to need it for future matches.

SINGLES

It was the first matches in the singles competition at Arden and we came across a problem in the match between Mary Turner and Ian Rennie when both failed to weigh in. I have left both on no points for the group match, we can take a vote on the outcome at the next match.

CAN YOU NAME THE VENUES

While we wait for the Divisions to take shape I have filled the space with a little bit of fun, can you name the venue's where the pics were taken.

NEWS

I hope you all have recovered from the weather that greeted our first match of 2015. It was a little disappointing to see the usual prolific Cob House turn against us for our doubles event, but I'm afraid that's what you get when you fail to secure favourable dates. The place is so popular when I rang them to book the match in 2013 it was the only date left. We have a later date next year which should help with the big weights and we are all on the same pool. I am waiting for a call back from them regards 2017.

I know I thanked Ian Hughes for his efforts in the after match handout but I forgot to mention the Bullock brothers and new member Andy Taylor for their help in making sure the nets were put back nice and tidy at the end of the match.

Although the conditions were not ideal there were some notable performances on the day especially from Brian Tovey who managed to put 56-8 onto the scales. Brian has not had much luck from the draw bag in the past so let's hope his luck is about to change going forward.

Rob Cox enjoyed his Birthday by winning the event with Juan but he did not enjoy taking another dip after slipping down the bank. He got some impressive points for his last effort but I'm afraid he did not score very well this time.

I have no news for you on the two remaining venues for next season yet. I am trying to find a couple of new places for us to tackle but I am having no success at the moment.

I attended a function recently only to find our resident Presentation DJ Ian Rennie behind the turn tables and he could not stop talking about the start he has made to the 2015 season. Who would have believed it back in 2012 he was second from bottom in Division Three and now he leads the First Division. I just wonder what he will have on the shirt if he ends up top at the end of the season.
