FEEDERS WIN THE TEAMS OF THREE

Feeders made up of Rob Cox, Andy Taylor, and Dave Crosby collected the Teams of Three Competition on a very patchy Dales Pool at Bonehill Mill. The result was in the balance right until the final two weigh ins which gave the winners a single point advantage over the Spanish Eye's team.

Rob Cox (38-04) continued his fine run of form to collect the win in Section Two and this was followed by Andy Taylor (28-13) in Section Three. The final member of the team Dave Crosby (4-6) struggled in Section One. Rob and Andy completed a superb double as they won our Doubles event earlier in the year.

Spanish Eyes just missed out on the winners envelope by just One Point to finish in second spot. Both Steve Cox (32-00) and Juan Periera (28-01) collected two points in their sections with Brian Tovey (13-02) gaining six points from Section One. Juan needed to win Section Three to give the Spanish Eye's team victory but he missed out by 12 ounces. Kierans Clangers ended up in third place just a point behind the second place team, Kieran Smith (28-00) gained 3 points in Section Two which was matched by Sean Durrant (22-00) in Section Three, Jeff Turner (15-10) made up the trio with Five Points from Section One.

Fourth position went to the BJP team, B.Hinks(36-14), J.King (11-00), and P.Bullock (8-00) they had to rely on weight count back to push the The Krankies down to fifth. The Krankies where made up of P.Hotchkiss(20-14), D.Skinner(27-13), and A.Whitmore (4-0).

Unfortunately the Bell Enders had only two representatives but they managed to finish in Sixth spot, Two clear of Mary's Boys.

Many thanks to all those who helped with the weigh in and not forgetting John Male who was a great help with the draw.

WHO WILL WIN THE FIRST VETS TROPHY

With just one more match to go in our first ever Vets Trophy it's anyone's guess who will be crowned champion of 2016. Going into the final match at Sion Farm just Four points separate the top Five members. Brian Tovey leads the way two points clear of John Male and Colin Parsonage who are closely followed by Dave Skinner and Dave Robinson. Should be interesting with the last match being our Silver only match.

SINGLES SEMI-FINALS

The two Singles Semi-Finals should produce some special action at Sion Farm with the contest being a Silvers only match. The First Semi brings together two stalwarts of the Club Kieran Smith and Colin Parsonage, both members have a reputation of being good Silver fish anglers so I am expecting a close result in this one. Kieran qualified from Group A with a better overall weight whilst Colin had a Two point advantage in Group B.

The Second Semi is an all First Division clash between Rob Cox and Peter Bullock. Rob Cox will be defending the Singles title he won last year and he is up against the 2014 champion Peter for a place in the final. Rob Cox eased into the last Four with a perfect record in Group C winning all Five matches. Peter had to rely on the better overall weight in Group D but he was pushed all the way by two members who also won three matches. I would not like to call this one with both members being very consistent throughout the season.
