CROCKER WINS FISHERWICK

PETE BULLOCK WINS THE SINGLES
AND CLAIMS RUNNERS-UP IN DIVISION ONE

PAUL HOTCHKISS FINALLY GETS
THE BETTER OF JEFF TURNER

CROCKER WINS THE FINAL MATCH OF THE SEASON A CARP IN THE LAST MINUTE SEES HIM HOME

Dave Crosby left it until 'Fish On' time at the final whistle to win the final match of the season at Fisherwick Lakes. Dave will collect the London Taxi Trophy for his efforts which seen him use the feeder and the pole in the margins to top the field with 26-4.

Sean Durrant rounded off another fine season by claiming Runners-up spot from peg 12. Sean was a little behind the rest due to his late arrival, but he wasted no time in putting together a nice mixed bag for 23-4.

Steve Cox saved his best performance of the season until the last match finishing in third position with 22-8. Steve used the pole throughout the match at various distances and will be kicking himself for all the lost fish in the last hour.

Pete Bullock gave a polished display from the much fancied peg 31 to finish in the frame with 18-2. Pete found it hard work early on until he fished the margins late on to find some carp which was enough for the fourth place envelope.

John Male finished the match in fifth place with 17-4, Paul Hotchkiss ended with 15-10 from peg 11 for sixth.

WHAT A FINAL MATCH

A couple of the undecided league positions were sorted at a dramatic final match. In the First Division Pete Bullock claimed the Runners-up spot edging out Rob Cox who had a nightmare last two matches.

In the Third Division Paul Hotchkiss managed to leapfrog Jeff Turner to gain second spot, the two have been see-sawing all season and a single point separated them in the end

SINGLES
The grand final of the Singles Competition had a disappointing end when Kieran Smith put in his worst performance of the year which allowed Pete Bullock to lift the BRS shield and become the first winner of the new format. Pete must have enjoyed his day at Fisherwick, claiming the runners-up spot and the Singles.

I HOPE YOU ALL ENJOYED YOUR FIRST SEASON

The three newcomers to the club this season Paul Hotchkiss, Juan Pereira, and Jeff Turner all settled in very quickly and I hope they all enjoyed themselves. It was also good to see them all entering into our friendly atmosphere and not forgetting the banter. All three soon showed us they are very competitive regards the fishing and it was nice to see them collecting brown envelopes some time during the year. Paul and Jeff had a right ding dong battle all season for the runners-up spot in Division Three and I'm sure Juan would have joined them if he had fished the opening two matches.

UNLUCKY DAVE

Dave Skinner can feel a little unlucky by missing our last match of the season. With four divisional wins Dave put himself to within a point of second placed Ian Rennie in the Second Division promotion race, but as I always say Dave family always come first.

ENJOY YOUR BIRTHDAY COLIN

Colin Parsonage

Unfortunately Colin Parsonage will have to miss the Presentation evening, he will be elsewhere celebrating his 65th Birthday with his family. Does this mean we will have a new early draw member for next season.

DAVE YOU WILL HAVE TO GIVE ME LESSONS

One of my recent birthday presents off the wife was a new Sat-Nav and if the rumours are true Dave Robinson knows how to use these things inside out. So when you have a free day off the golf course perhaps you can show me how the thing works.
