SLIP DISC RENNIE BACK TO WIN OPENER

Despite being laid up for over a week with a slipped disc, Ian Rennie fished through the pain barrier to win the opening fixture of 2013 at the Riddings match pool. Ian had trouble casting the feeder to any distance which ironically helped him put together a cracking brace of Carp and a mixture of silvers for 22 pound. Although Ian won the charity match in 2011, this is his first win in a club match and will collect the Mrs Hurlbutt trophy at out presentation evening later in the year.

Another angler not in the best of health John Male finished second fishing from peg 3 he put 16-04 on the scales. John found a couple of decent fish early on, but then relied on a number of small silvers to make up his weight.

Dave Robinson from peg 5 made a useful debut with Exel Angling ending up in third place with 12 pound. Like most Dave struggled early on but found the biggest fish of the day a 6-2 Carp on the pole late in the five hour contest.

Like Dave Robinson, Dave (Crocker) Crosby was having his first outing with Exel and he can be satisfied with his fourth place finish. Crocker used both pole and feeder from peg 10 and he found a Carp over 5 pound which helped to boost his weight to 10-14.

Keith Snazle stuck to his small fish approach from peg 8 to finish fifth and both Steve Kavanagh and Pete Bullock ended with 10-02 to finish joint sixth.

Unfortunately Rob Cox had to miss the match due a illness in the family, our thoughts go out to Rob and his family at this time.

I think the match at the Riddings was a little patchy and the cold weather through the evening didn't help, but the main thing everybody caught fish. Lets hope the weather improves for our next match at Curborough.

WELCOME TO THE THREE NEW MEMBERS

I hope our three new members for 2013 enjoyed their first match with Exel Angling. I'm sure you all know Dave Robinson and Dave Crosby who's fished with us on many occasions, but it was also nice to see the third new recruit Steve Smith for the first time.

Dave Crosby who won our charity match at the end of last season presented us with a trophy before the match which will go to winner of our match at Pipehill Farm later in the year. This was a nice gesture Dave, now all we need is a suitable name to be engraved on the annual trophy.

Weather cloudy with a few sunny spells.

Winners into BRS Shield
Losers into Subsidiary Shield

Steve Kavanagh will no doubt have his sights firmly set on holding onto his First Division championship and make it three on the trot. Steve became the first angler in our club last season to retain the title since we split the members into Three divisions and would like to extend that record a further year.

The champion likes doing things in three's remember back in 2011 Steve became the first angler to record three wins on the trot taking the honours at Dayhouse Farm, Alvechurch Fishery, and Wassell Grove, so I think it is a question of who can stop Steve in 2013.

ALAN'S NEW SPONSOR MAVER

The Langley Wizard himself Alan Whitmore has been busy during the winter months gaining a new sponsor Maver, well he should have with the amount of new Maver tackle he turned up with at the Riddings. I wonder what the company would have said if they had seen him demolish Steve Kavanagh's pole roller on the way to his peg.

What's more worrying is that Alan is a professional driver or so he says. On a serious note I would like to thank Alan once again for all his hard work he does throughout the season running cards before every match which helps boost the clubs funds.

STEVE HAD A BUSY DAY

Steve Kavanagh had a busy start to the day on Sunday at our match at The Riddings. First he had to repair his pole roller after the Langley Wizard had demolished it, then moments later he had to do his good Samaritan bit by helping a lady to her feet after she had fallen behind his peg. The worrying thing about this lady was she was carrying a life size model of Spiderman, Myself, Pete Bullock, Keith Snazle, and Crocker insist it was a blow up version.

NEWS

I am still working on the dates for our Race Night and Presentation evening. John Male is 99% sure this years Charity match will take place on Sunday November 3rd at the Punch Bowl's water in Old Arley. The Charity teams of Four event in which we entered two teams last year will go ahead and I will let you know the date ASAP.

NICE START TO THE SEASON PETE

Pete Bullock started the 2013 season in fine style, his first cast of the feeder ended up in a tree on the island, the second caught a duck flying past which took his feeder three pegs away from where he was fishing. Finally when he got it right at the third attempt a fish hooked it self before it had time to settle and Pete went into panic mood. Playing the fish very professionally, you know page 10 from the John Male school of angling book, the landing net was at the ready and you have guessed it, I think it went something like you xxxxx and off the fish went.
