NEW MEMBER LLOYD VALLENTINE WINS AT MEADOWLANDS

Lloyd Valentine certainly enjoyed his first match since joining Exel Angling when winning at a canter on the Warren Pool at Meadowlands. Lloyd caught most of his mainly Carp net on the feeder which was some 13 pound ahead of second place and he will collect the Crosby Cup at the Presentation later in the year.

Sean Durrant collected the second place envelope with a lovely mixed bag of Carp and Silvers from peg 18. Sean used the tip and Pole throughout the Five hour match and landed a nice looking Nine pound Carp.

Juan Periera continued his consistent start to the 2019 season putting just over Forty pound onto the scales from peg 16. Like most of the members Juan suffered lot's of missed fish due to the size of the lumps but his finishing weight was enough for third place.

In the next peg to Juan, Rob Cox gained his best finish of the season to-date putting 35-04 onto the scales for fourth place. It was nice to see Rob back with us after his recent operation, could this be the start of his usual mid-season run of results that pushes him up the table.

Three section prizes at this match went to Frank Wallace, Michael Farrell, and Colin Parsonage, it turned out to be a good day for Colin who landed the biggest fish of the season from peg 10 a huge 14 pound 9 ounce lump. Colin must have been sweating at the weigh in with another two big fish still to be put onto the scales. Dave Skinner (peg 3) and Michael Farrell (peg 31) must be a little upset there fish weighed exactly the same 14 pound 8 ounces, just an ounce short. Well done to all three of you, and a big well done to the weighing in team who did a superb job in difficult circumstances up and down those steep banks, but as John Male said "it takes me back to the old river matches".

The two most consistent members in the First Division lead the way with Ian and Juan level on Five points with Ian having the better overall weight. John Male has moved up to third spot just ahead of Bob Hinks who drops to Fourth. Just three separates the next Five Dave and Kieran are both on 15, Rob Cox improved his league position is on 16 a point clear of Paul Hotchkiss who holds the same advantage over Pete Bullock.

With three divisional wins out of the four matches Sean Durrant is still the leader of Division Two. Andy moved into second spot replacing Jeff Turner but the biggest mover is Colin who is now in fourth on 12 points. Despite a couple of bad results Brian is in fifth a point clear of Dave Crosby who is two clear of Darren who moved up to seventh. Steve has 18 points in Eighth place with Ian Hughes in Ninth on 22.

After looking a bit lob-sided the Third Division now has Eight members which should help the competition. Frank still leads the way a point clear of Michael but I can see this being very close throughout the season. Mary and Leo are both on 11 points with Mary just having the edge on weight. Micky Small moved in front of Chris Thorpe who unfortunately had to miss the Meadowlands match. Lloyd who won the match at the Coventry venue is in seventh with Steve Tayler in Eighth. I hope Lloyd and Steve enjoyed their first match with us.
