IT'S HAPPENED AGAIN ROB COX PAUL HOTCHKISS IAN RENNIE WIN THE DAVE ROBINSON TEAM TROPHY WITH THE PERFECT SCORE

Well after Jeff, Colin, and Sean nailed the perfect score of three points to win the Dave Robinson Memorial Team Trophy last season many thought we would not see that again for a while. It's congratulations to Rob Cox, Paul Hotchkiss, and Ian Rennie who matched the perfect score to win the 2019 trophy with six points to spare. Rob took the first section by storm running out an easy winner when he put over 89 pound onto the scales. Paul took the honours in the second section weighing in 38-12 and the perfect day was completed by Ian Rennie who easily won the third section with just over 73 pound.

Runners-up with nine points where the trio of Steve Cox, Steve Tayler, and Frank Wallace. Steve managed four points from peg 2 in the first section with 29-10. New member this term Steve Tayler gathered two points in the second section with 34-02 and their team was completed by Frank Wallace who offered the scales a level 41 pound for three points in the third section.

Third place went to Leo McLaughlin, Sean Durrant and Colin Parsonage with 12 points. Colin weighed in 44-08 for two points in the third section, Sean with a level 30 pound claimed three points with Leo gaining 7 with 8-07.

REPORTS

DIVISIONS

With Juan Periera having to miss our match at Solhampton it's certainly tightened things up at the top of the First Division. Juan still leads The way but his lead as been cut to just A single point after Ian Rennies fine Showing at Solhampton.

Rob Cox is certainly on a roll at present And has moved into third place just five points behind Ian Rennie. It's very close between the next three members John Male is fourth on 21 points, Kieran is on 22 with Bob Hinks slipping down the table on 23. Paul Hotchkiss moved up a place with 27, Dave Skinner is on 30 followed by Peter Bullock on 34 points.

Sean Durrant still leads the way in Division Two with Seven points but his advantage has been cut to four points by Andy Taylor who managed two divisional points at Solhampton. Colin Parsonage moved into third spot with 18 points one clear of Jeff Turner who had to miss the last match due to his recent operation. Steve Cox is fifth with 24 one clear of Brian Tovey who has the advantage over Dave Crosby. Darren Bullock is on 30 followed by Ian Hughes on 42.

The continuing battle at top of the Third Division between Frank Wallace and Michael Farrell is still on going with both level on ten points with Frank just have the better weight. Mary Turner moved into third spot resulting in have a better overall weight than Leo McLaughlin both having 21 points. Lloyd Valentine is fifth on 29 points one clear of Chris Thorpe who improved his position with a good result in the last match. Steve Tayler is on 33 points with Micky Small on 34.

CHARITY SHIELD

Rob Cox certainly enjoyed his day on The Valley Pool at Solhampton when Winning our Annual Charity Match And collecting the Les Rhodes Charity Shield in the process. It was fitting That Rob won the event because before The match Rob presented a cheque to Us for £50 which was donated by the Oasis Blakenhale Academy (teaching staff). Many thanks to all those at the Academy for their donation. We should also thank John Male who organizes our Charity event every year and all the proceeds will be handed over at our Presentation evening later in the year.

VETS LEAGUE

We are at the half-way stage in this seasons Vets League and Bob Hinks has opened up a Four point lead at the top of the table. The competition resumes at our next match at Elmbridge and no doubt Bob will be after another good finish to maintain his early advantage. It's very tight between the remaining Six members with only three points separating them as they try to chase down Bob's early lead. John Male and Brian Tovey both have Six Points but John's superior weight difference gives him second spot. Dave Skinner is a point behind John and Brian but he holds the same advantage over Colin Parsonage and Mary Turner. Steve Cox is in Seventh on Nine points.

DAVE SKINNER

On behalf of all connected with Exel Angling may we pass on our condolences and sympathy to Dave and his family on their recent tragic loss. All our thoughts are with you all.

SATURDAY MATCH

Many thanks to all those who turned up at the recent Saturday afternoon Charity match organized by Paul Hotchkiss held at Alvechurch Fishery. Paul holds four matches throughout the season at various venues and proceeds go into the end of season charity fund. The match was held on the Canal Pool and the weights recorded certainly suggested Everyone had a good day. The match Was won by Frank Wallace with a Winning weight of 104 pound 08 Ounces.. Second was Rob Cox with 98-12 followed by Ian Rennie with 93-14. The next Saturday match will be held at Packington Somers on the 3rd August. If you would like to take part please contact Paul.

GET WELL SOON JEFF

I'm sure we all wish Jeff Turner a speedy recovery after his recent knee operation. You know what Jeff we are missing you already.

RULES

Winner of each match will receive 3 points, Second 2 points, Third 1 point. If two members weigh in with the same weight, If it's the top two they will receive 3 points each if it's the bottom two they will receive 2 points each. If for any reason a member is unable to fish any of the matches they will receive no points. After the three matches are completed if two or more members have the same number of points it will be decided by overall weight. The overall winner of the competition will receive the BRS Shield with the runners-up collecting the Subsidiary Shield.

With just one match remaining in the Semi-Final sections, it's still undecided who will progress to the final. In section One Sean Durrant holds top spot with Six Points but he could be caught by second placed John Male who is on Four. It's anyone's guess who will go through in section two, Ian Rennie with his good result at Solhampton moved into top spot on 5 points one clear of Michael Farrell and Frank has put himself in contention with two points on the Valley Pool. Andy Taylor moved into pole position in section three and with both Juan and Jeff missing the match it's made for an interesting last match decider at Elmbridge.
