ANDY TAYLOR SMASHES THE TON IN HIS WIN AT ELMBRIDGE THE FIRST THREE FIGURE WEIGHT OF THE SEASON

Andy Taylor certainly took a liking to the Heron Pool at Elmbridge winning with the top weight of the season to-date 119 pound. Andy used the Pellet feeder for most of the match casting to the corner of the island from peg 14 and caught consistently throughout the five hour match.

Juan Periera continued his fine Form when collecting the second Placed envelope from peg nine at The far end of the pool. Juan used His trusted feeder approach and Presented some nice looking Carp To the weight sling for 80-10.

Steve Cox had his best match of the season claiming third place from peg 3 just by the entrance to the pool. Steve struggled in the early parts of the match but when he introduced paste with two hours remaining his fortunes changed and he put just over 72 pounds onto the scales.

Dave Skinner enjoyed his return to The bank sending the scales around To just shy of 50 pounds which was Enough for him to collect the fouth Placed coin. Dave used the feeder To land some nice looking fish.

With 23 fishing the match there where two section prizes up for grabs, Michael Farrell claimed the first section with a level 42 pound. Peter Bullock took the second section with 43 pound which was helped by a 13 pound 10 ounce lump early in the match.

Once again many thanks to all those who helped on the day, Frank Wallace helping with pegging out, Darren Bullock for running the card, John Male for organizing the pay out, and not forgetting all those who helped with the weigh in Michael Farrell, Paul Hotchkiss, and Rob Cox.

THREE MATCHES TO GO AND IT'S GETTING CLOSER IN THE SECOND AND THIRD DIVISIONS

Not many changes in the First Division after our match at Elmbridge. Top of the table Juan Periera extended his lead to four points after his good result on the Heron Pool. Ian Rennie stays in second place but holds a six point advantage over third placed Rob Cox. John Male, Kieran Smith, and Bob Hinks are unchanged in mid division, then comes the only mover in the division Dave Skinner who exchanged places with Paul Hotchkiss with Peter Bullock in ninth.

Sean Durrant still leads the Way in Division Two but With second placed Andy Taylor having a good win At Elmbridge his lead Is Now only two points.

Colin Parsonage, Jeff Turner, and Steve Cox remain in third, fourth, and fifth. Dave Crosby moved up a place into Sixth above the unfortunate Brian Tovey who had to miss the last match after his wife was rushed into hospital. Darren Bullock is still in eighth and Ian Hughes is in Ninth.

It looks like it's going down To the wire between the Leading two in Division Three. The lead keeps Changing after every match And at the moment it's Michael Farrell who just has his nose in front by a single point from Frank Wallace. Mary Turner is still in third place but it's just a point advantage over fourth placed Leo McLaughlin. Lloyd Valentine is continually closing the gap and is now just five behind Leo. Micky Small improved his position after picking up good points at Elmbridge, Chris Thorpe is Seventh and Steve Tayler Eighth.

REPORTS

THIS SEASONS CHARITIES

At the AGM it was approved by those attending that this season's donation would be shared between Two charities that were nominated by certain members. It was also decided going forward that whoever wins the Club Member Of The Year would nominate the following season's Charity. The Annual Charity donation was set up by John Male back in 2011 and the main benefactors in the early years of the event were the West Midland Air Ambulance who do a sterling job in the rural area around Old Arley where John Lives. John continues to arrange the Annual Charity match and the final amount is also helped by the Saturday Afternoon matches which are arranged by Paul Hotchkiss.

This seasons Charities are those nominated by Colin Parsonage and Frank Wallace and they are Firstly Colin's nomination

THE PRIMROSE HOSPICE BROMSGROVE

Honoured to be able to support patients with life limited illnesses and their families, providing them with the care and support they need during difficult times.

primrose hospice

Frank's nomination

PRECIOUS HANDS FROM RUBY-JO

The Charity was established to provide families of terminally ill children a 3D casting kit so they are able to produce a meaningful memory of their child. The Charity is sponsored by a number of local children's services and the kits they provide are all paid for by donation.

VETS LEAGUE

Bob Hinks is still in pole position in this seasons competition, with just two matches remaining he holds a five point lead at the top of the table.

Two members lead the chasing Pack, John Male and Dave Skinner who are both on nine Points, but I think they are relying on a dramatic dip in form from the leader to have any chance of lifting the title.

After his fine result in our last match Steve Cox moved into fourth position on 10 points, Steve leads three members all locked on 13 points, Colin Parsonage, Mary Turner, and Brian Tovey.

RULES

Winner of each match will receive 3 points, Second 2 points, Third 1 point. If two members weigh in with the same weight, If it's the top two they will receive 3 points each if it's the bottom two they will receive 2 points each. If for any reason a member is unable to fish any of the matches they will receive no points. After the three matches are completed if two or more members have the same number of points it will be decided by overall weight. The overall winner of the competition will receive the BRS Shield with the runners-up collecting the Subsidiary Shield.

Well we now know the Three members who will contest the 2019 singles competition final. Although only picking up two points in the last match Sean Durrant topped Section One with a three point advantage over John Male with Dave Skinner ending on 4. Michael Farrell will join Sean in the final after collecting the three points at Elmbridge he overtook Ian Rennie who finished with 6 one clear of Frank Wallace.

Andy Taylor will be the third member to qualify, he finished on 7 points in section three after his win in the last match. Defending champion Juan Periera finished second in the section with five, two clear of Jeff Turner.
