We will be counting your individual results from all of this years matches and they will count towards the league tables. Please remember you will drop your worst result throughout the season and if for any reason you miss a match you will be awarded 10 points. If two or more are on the same number of points overall weight will decide the positions.

With just two matches remaining in the 2022 season it's time to start looking at who is in the hunt for promotion and who's fearing the dreaded relegation.

The fight for the champion of the First Division continues between Michael Farrell and Frank Wallace with Faz just holding a slender one point lead. It was unfortunate that Pete Bullock had to miss the last match because he was starting to put a bit of pressure on the leading two, he remains in third spot three clear of Ian Hughes in fourth. Andy Taylor moves into fifth place two points clear of Jeff Turner and there is no change in the bottom two Ian Rennie in seventh and Dave Skinner in Eighth. Ron Evans looks in a good position at the top of the Second Division with an eight point advantage. There is a real scrap going on for second place at the moment, Martyn Harris holds the place on 22 points but he is only two points clear of Paul Connell and Darren Bullock who are locked on 24. Steve Cox moves into fifth place on 34 one in front of Steve Talyer. Brian Tovey and Colin Parsonage remain the bottom two. It's very close at the top of Division Three, Rob Cox helped by his third divisional win takes a narrow one point lead at the top, but I'm sure Simon Spence will keep the pressure on in the remaining two matches. Daz Haynes remains in third spot five behind second placed Simon and again Daz will keep plugging away to the end. Nick Hull moved up a place into fourth on 34 points six clear of Sophie Crumpton who had to miss the match due to illness. We hope she gets well soon. No changes in the bottom three, Juan Periera, Dave Crosby, and John Male.

SINGLES

This seasons final will be between Frank Wallace and Daz Haynes who will meet on the final match of the season at Bonehill Mill. Both Frank and Daz won there second matches in the three match semi-final's and both having won their first matches they cannot be caught and will contest the final. A special word for the losing semi finalist who remember won their respective groups on the way Martyn Harris and Ron Evans.
