MORE SILVERWARE FOR ROB COX AFTER HIS WIN AT COPPICE LANE ROB ADDS THE PAT & LOUISE TROPHY TO HIS COLLECTION

Rob Cox is certainly enjoying his end of season good form with a convincing victory on Becketts Pool at Coppice Lane. Rob drew peg 20 out of the bag and managed to turn the scales around to just over 41 pound to take the Pat & Louise Memorial Trophy with over Four pound to spare. Rob has recently won the Teams of Three, Birmingham Banter Trophy, and the Charity Shield and who knows what others he will win before the season closes.

Another member who's having a golden Patch at the moment is Juan Periera who From Peg 31 managed to land 37 pound One ounce to take second place. Juan Used his trusted feeder to the corner of The Island and netted some nice looking Carp.

It was good to see Kieran Smith in the frame collecting third place from the noted peg 22. Kieran used the pole at Six Metres and landed some nice Carp for just over 35 pound but he lost a few throughout the day which could of changed the result.

Another member to loose a few was Paul Hotchkiss who missed out on third place by just one ounce. Paul was fishing from peg 7 and everyone he hooked went straight for reeds opposite his peg which proved to difficult to stop.

The consistent Frank Wallace grabbed Fifth place from peg 27 catching most of his 28-4 on the feeder across to the island.

Micky Small ended in sixth from peg 18 putting three fish on the scales for a level 18 pound.

MANY THANKS

Thanks to all those who helped John yesterday.

We have reached the business end of the season where every point counts for those with aspirations of gaining promotion or those trying to avoid relegation. Juan Periera is in pole position in the First Division with another good result at Coppice Lane he has increased his lead to Eight points. The scrap for runners-up is now down to a single point with Ian Rennie just holding the advantage over the improving Rob Cox. Kieran Smith moved into Fourth position just one ahead of John Male then we have the battle to see who avoids the drop into the Second Division. Dave Skinner is sixth on 37 points one clear of the improving Paul Hotchkiss who is two clear of Bob Hinks, Peter Bullock remains in Ninth on 46. With long time leader Sean Durrant having to miss the last match due to holidays Andy Taylor took full advantage to take over at the top on 14 points. Jeff Turner took the Divisional win to move into Third place and he holds a three point lead over Colin Parsonage. Steve Cox was one of Five missing the match in Division Two but he managed to hold onto Fifth with Darren Bullock moving into Sixth on 40 points one clear of Dave Crosby. Brian Tovey is Eighth followed by Ian Hughes in Ninth. The lead changed hands again in Division Three with Frank Wallace moving Two clear of close rival Michael Farrell. I think the two will be promoted to the Second Division next term it's just a matter who goes up as Champion. Mary Turner is still in third place two points clear of Leo McLaughlin, Micky Small moved up to Fifth after a fine match at Coppice Lane and he now holds a couple of points advantage over Lloyd Valentine. Steve Tayler moved into Eighth place relegating Chris Thorpe to Ninth.

REPORTS

THIS SEASONS CHARITIES

At the AGM it was approved by those attending that this season's donation would be shared between Two charities that were nominated by certain members. It was also decided going forward that whoever wins the Club Member Of The Year would nominate the following season's Charity. The Annual Charity donation was set up by John Male back in 2011 and the main benefactors in the early years of the event were the West Midland Air Ambulance who do a sterling job in the rural area around Old Arley where John Lives. John continues to arrange the Annual Charity match and the final amount is also helped by the Saturday Afternoon matches which are arranged by Paul Hotchkiss.

This season's Charities are those nominated by Colin Parsonage and Frank Wallace and they are Firstly Colin's nomination

THE PRIMROSE HOSPICE BROMSGROVE

Honoured to be able to support patients with life limited illnesses and their families, providing them with the care and support they need during difficult times.

Frank's nomination

PRECIOUS HANDS FROM RUBY-JO

The Charity was established to provide families of terminally ill children a 3D casting kit so they are able to produce a meaningful memory of their child. The Charity is sponsored by a number of local children's services and the kits they provide are all paid for by donation.

VETS LEAGUE

With just one match remaining Bob Hinks lead at the top is now down to Three points, Dave Skinner's good result at Coppice Lane moved him into second place one ahead of John Male. Steve Cox, Mary Turner and Colin Parsonage are separated by just two points with Brian Tovey in Seventh with 22 points.

If my calculations are correct it will be between Bob Hinks and Dave Skinner who will lift the Vets League Trophy at the end of the season. No doubt both will be up for a good match at Bonehill Mill on Sunday 13th October.

RETURN TROPHIES

Could all those members who won one or more of our annual trophies last season please could you return them to myself at our next match at Alvechurch or our final match at Bonehill Mill. This will give us enough time to have them suitably engraved ready for our 2019 Presentation. Myself and John do not want to be driving around collecting those not returned so it would be most appreciated if you could hand them back at the matches stated above.

EARLY ADVANTAGE TO MICHAEL

Michael "FAZ" Farrell has taken the early advantage in the final group matches in the Singles Competition. With Sean missing two of three matches it should be a straight shoot out between Faz and Andy Taylor. To be fair both had a disappointing day at Coppice Lane so lets look forward to hopefully good matches at Alvechurch and Bonehill Mill.
